

January 30, 2007

He's a great dog and yes his name still fits him. Just a few months back he took a T-Bone steak off the counter .. because [it was accidently] left in his reach. Mischief was sick the next day.

January 31, 2006

Mischief is doing great and he's really starting to fill out finally.

Photos: 1) Mischief relaxing at home
2) the neighbor kids just love Mischief!

August 10, 2005

I haven't an updated picture but I thought you like to hear what that stinkers been up too. He has a chew bone that he likes to work at ..well for the past few night he's been sitting behind my chair just chewing away at this bone...or at least that's what I thought. Mischief was crunching on my wall behind my chair. He chewed a hole in the wall. The wall had some damage before but I guess he wanted to make sure that we fix it. He has been so good for the longest time. Then him and the cat were hunting a fly together tonight.

January 2, 2005

He's just doing great! Everyone that comes over calls him "big nose" and I've finally taught him how to speak. ... Now he has this thing that he not only barks when people come over but [all the dogs] have to bark now when people leave the house also.

July 30, 2004

Mischief is doing really good. He wants to hang with the guys after work out in the garage. Oh and he hasn't out grown his mischievous ways yet. We can't keep a collar on Mo because Mischief always seems to take it off of him!

Photo: Mischief with his best bud Mojo (Shep/Border collie)

March 2004

He's doing wonderful, but he still gets in to mischief from time to time. You named him good! He's also 100% house broken now ...knock on wood.

February 2004

Mischief has brought so much joy in to our lives. It is never a dull moment when he's around because he's always getting in to

January 30, 2007

January 31, 2006

January 2, 2005

something!

Photo: Michief with his best cat Mario

January 2004

Mischief is doing great!" We can see that his coloring is really changing!

Photos: 1) Mischief's coloring is really changing! 2) Mischief with Mojo ( Shep/Border Collie) & Sprite (Terrier mix)

November 2003

He still lives up to his name...it's play time all the time.

Photo: rare photo of a tired Mischief!

October 2003

Mischief is doing well in his new home and having fun with his doggie brother and kitty friend. As when he was in rescue, he would still rather be off playing with his buddies than getting hugs. No time for that mushy stuff.

September 2003

Photos: Mischief's first day at his new home.

July 30, 2004

March 2004

February 2004

January 2004

November 2003

October 2003

September 2003

