Punk (formerly Shamus) on right napping with my 10 year old boy, G. They've become the best of buds. Punk is also good buds with Gnarly. Dude tolerates him.

Everything is going quite well in our home with our new family member. Gnarly and Mr. Shamus are now buds. They like to snooze on the couch together as well as tease each other with the various kongs and bones in our house. Shamus and Dude respect each other but aren't play buds yet. G. reminds Shamus to keep his distance, and Shamus does. Consequently, we're pleased that everyone is working the details out. Thanks again for your help, and for all you do for the breed.
